We help HR and Accounting teams sit comfortably at the same table

Benefits administration software for HR teams

Approving benefit plan invoices sounds simple until you dig into the details, but this is a common task for your benefits team - multiple platforms, Excel spreadsheets and VLOOKup are the norm. Upgrade your toolset with Tabulera and standardize processes and data to approve invoices in record time.

Benefits administration software for Accounting teams

Receive carrier invoices in a standardized format. Allow Tabulera's plan accounting module to create journal entries or post invoices directly into your accounts payable platform.

Let Tabulera be a common point of remittance for all your carriers or use our payment applications to send electronic payments directly to carriers.

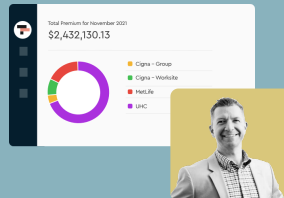

Tabulera's modules are designed to become your benefits subledger.

Integrate with your HRIS and Payroll systems

Regardless of your HRIS, Accounting, Payroll, or Enrollment system, Tabulera exchanges information through APIs, SFTP, or our bots to provide your team with the necessary data to automate and aggregate your benefit administration processes.

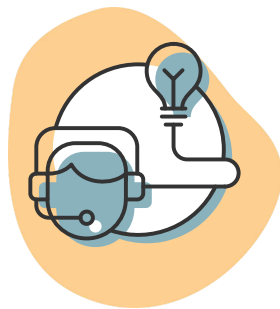

Amazing companies we help.

Tabulera is more than just software

Tabulera helps brokers, employers, AHP's and PEO's to streamline full-cycle employee benefits administration for processes previously unsupported by technology. Our benefits administration platform's modular approach combined with expert services keeps clients informed and in control while eliminating waste in the administration of benefits plans and employer-related programs.

Join a growing number of companies that use Tabulera to automate and transform their employee benefits processes.

Tabulera's suite of benefits administration modules for employers:

Consolidated Invoicing

Eliminate tedious and repetitive monthly tasks that can easily be automated through Tabulera. Streamline capturing carrier list-bill invoices and the creation of self-bills from your enrollment platform.

Integrated Reconciliation

Tired of spreadsheets and manual matching of datasets? Let Tabulera's AI match data and identify variances by reason and account for payroll frequency differences. Allow multiple levels of review.

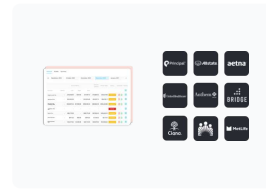

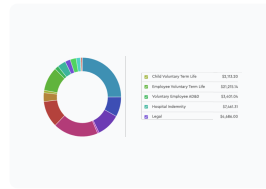

Payment Automation

Establish payment rules by plan and insurance carrier and select from Tabulera's supported remittance advices to support the electronic payment of your benefits invoices. Draw payments from your bank account or pay a single invoice to Tabulera remit to carriers on your behalf.
